some other nation on both the Atlantic and the Pacific sides thereof, such as Hongkong, Hamburg, Curacao, Punta Arenas, St. Thomas.

The commerce of the world demands and will have it. Such a port maintained in Hawaii will in no way interfere with our import laws, but will draw to our nation a large part of the trade of all other nations. Hawaii above all other places in the Pacific ocean is most desirable for such a port. Here vessels from all directions may discharge those parts of their cargoes that are to be delivered to ports outside of their regular route, the same to be taken by another vessel and carried onward in the same manner as railroads handle each other's freight and passengers. When Hawaii is made such a distributing point for commerce, the advantageous results to her will be incalculable.

The Democratic party pledges itself to keep at it until it shall accomplish it. That a Democratic Delegate to Congress can do far more than a Republican with the party now in power for the advancement of Hawaii's interests in every way, must be self-evident to all voters.

The Primary Law.
The Republican party has enacted a Primary Law that is admittedly faulty in many of its provisions. We pledge our candidates for the legislature to so amend the law that the wishes of the people as expressed in a primary election may not be defeated.

Territorial Administration.
The Democratic party of Hawaii deeply deprecates that its expectations of a progressive Democratic administration on the part of Governor L. E. Pinkham have not been fulfilled. Governor Pinkham, from the beginning of his administration, has not been in sympathy with the rank and file of our party and he has shown by his inability to grasp the political situation that his appointment, evidently brought about through misrepresentation and deceit as to his political affiliation and beliefs, was a serious mistake. We denounce his administration as thoroughly undemocratic.

Don't blame your own financial depression on political affairs. You can still save money, even if the amounts are less than usual. But bank your savings with the Bank of Hawaii.

When you go calling on Her you want to look your best. You will if you don an Alfred Benjamin suit—and the place to get these fine suits is at The Clarion. It is the only store in town that sells clothing of this make. And you can get your collars, shirts and ties there, too.
